

AGREEMENT TO ENTER FAMILY THERAPY

1. We understand that the clinicians at Lampost Wellness Centers are state licensed clinical professionals and are mandated to report child abuse, elderly abuse, and any intent to harm self or others.
2. We understand that by entering therapy we are choosing to potentially make changes to our thoughts, feelings, and behaviors. we are ultimately responsible for our lives and the changes we make.
3. We agree to provide a credit/debit card to pay for treatment and understand fees of $400/per 100-minute session (generally every two weeks) will be charged during the 48 hours preceding our appointment time. Interim sessions (50 minutes) will be charged at the rate of $215.
4. We agree to keep all our appointments unless we have given 48 hours' notice, either in person or on the phone. We understand our obligation to pay fully for our therapist's time if we fail to provide this cancellation notice. In rare and emergency situations, our therapist may make an exception to this obligation.
5. If at any time, we chose to terminate therapy, we agree to announce our intention during one session and then return for at least one more session, after which therapy may end. We agree to be charged for a final session. This charge is to encourage our attendance in order to provide adequate and safe closure to treatment.
6. We understand and agree that Lampost Wellness Centers will keep all our personal information confidential but, without personal identification, the organization may use our issues and solutions for clinical supervision.
7. This agreement will remain in effect until we provide notice and terminate therapy.

CLIENT RIGHTS AND PRIVACY PRACTICES

There may be times when we need to consult with a colleague or another professional about issues raised by clients in therapy. Client confidentiality is still protected during consultation by us and the professional consulted. Signing this disclosure statement gives us permission to consult as needed to provide professional services to you as a client.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Generally speaking, the information provided by and to the client during therapy sessions is legally confidential and cannot be released without the client's consent. There are exceptions to this confidentiality, some of which are listed in the HIPPA Notice of Primacy Rights as well as other exceptions in Federal law. If a legal exception arises during therapy, if feasible, you will be informed accordingly. For example, some of the exceptions would include: suspected child abuse, molestation or incest, a client is in danger of hurting self or others, danger of violence, suspected abuse of the elderly or others unable to care for themselves, suspected threat to national security, subpoenaed testimony in criminal court cases, orders to violate privilege by judges in child custody and divorce cases.

CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

A child fourteen or younger seen in this office must have the signature of a parent. In the case of divorce, the authorization must be signed by both parents or the court document presented giving sole custody

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. The Notice takes effect April 14, 2003 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences in your best interest in allowing another person to pick up health information.

We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law or when ordered to do so by a court having jurisdiction of an appropriate matter.

We must disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or health or safety of others.

Access: You have the right to inspect or obtain copies of your health information, except for therapist's notes and certain other limited exceptions. If you request copies, we will charge you $1.00 for each page to locate and copy your health information, and postage if you want the copies mailed to you. If you request an alternative format, we will charge a cost based fee for printing your health information in that format.
